

I hear FCC is considering a policy that would override the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. Please don't. That law has improved my quality of life substantially. I don't want Big Brother forcing my state to let aggressive marketers disturb my peace in my own home.